Evidence could include but is not limited to the participation level and composition of participants in public information settings. Also reporting any follow-up and conclusions to issues communicated throughout the planning process.

VII. Title VI Related Training

The (insert your organization name) Title VI Coordinator shall ensure that staff is trained and familiar with (insert your organization name) related policies and procedures. Your organization could fulfill this requirement by a periodic refresher session for senior management, periodic training/discussion sessions to provide opportunities to discuss practical situations and how Title VI requirements may be useful. You may also use FHWA Training Resources (e.g. webinars) or NMDOT Office of Equal Opportunities for possible on-site Title VI training.

VIII. Limited English Proficiency (LEP) Plan

Executive Order 13166, titled Improving Access to Services for Persons with Limited English Proficiency, indicates that differing treatment based upon a person's inability to speak, read, write, or understand English is a type of national origin discrimination. Any agency receiving federal funds needs to develop a Limited English Proficiency (LEP) Plan.

The primary element of the LEP Plan is the Four Factor Analysis. (U.S. DOT "Policy Guidance Concerning Recipients Responsibilities to Limited English Proficient Persons" dated December 14, 2005 is a useful resource when performing the Four Factor Analysis.)

The Four Factor Analysis includes the following factors:

- Number or Proportion of LEP Individuals: This factor should describe your efforts to provide meaningful opportunities to your Limited English Proficient population. You organization should ask "What number or proportion of individuals will be excluded from benefits or services absent efforts to remove language barriers?"
- Frequency of Contact with the Program: If LEP persons must access your program/activity daily; the recipient of federal funds has a greater responsibility to tailor their services to the needs of LEP persons. This factor should be data driven and decisions should be in direct correlation through whatever data gathering exercises your organization uses.
- Nature and Importance of the Program: The need LEP individuals have to access benefits and services amplify with programs where the denial or delay of access may have life or death implications. Recipients of federal funds should identify programs of this type of importance and describe the process to ensure LEP persons are not denied or delayed in receiving the service or benefit of that service.
- Resources Available: Your organization may have limited resources and may not have to take the same steps as a larger organization to provide LEP assistance in programs that have a limited number of LEP persons (e.g., where contact is infrequent, where the total cost of providing language services is relatively high, and/or where the program is not crucial to a person's day to day existence.) Claims of limited resources will need to be well-substantiated.

In addition, your organization should address the appropriate mix of written and oral language assistance. Your organization should identify the following:

- Documents that should be translated
- Process to identify when oral translation is needed
- When services should be immediately available

IX. External Communication (Notification to Public Beneficiaries)

Your organization should provide information to members of the public detailing their Title VI obligation and notify members of the public of the protections against discrimination afforded to them by Title VI. Requirements include:

- Dissemination of Information: Your organization should disseminate this information to members of the public via accessible printed and electronic media, including posting on your organization's website.
- Contents of Notification: At a minimum, the notification should include the following:
 1. Statement that your organization operates the Federal Program(s) without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.
 2. Identify procedures to be followed by members of the public to request additional information regarding your organizations Title VI obligation.
 3. Identify procedures to be followed by members of the public to file a discrimination complaint against your organization.

X. Data Collection

Describe your organization's process for collecting and analyzing data on the race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability of participants and beneficiaries of your organizations programs and activities. Examples include tracking the race/ethnicity of residents relocated through your organization's right of way program, tracking the race/ethnicity of members of the public participation in public meetings, and collecting U.S. Census data on population by your organization's projects.

Program Area	Type of Data Collected & Process for Collecting	Intended Outcome of Data Analysis (i.e. Title VI Purpose for Collecting Data)
