

Hoary Cress: is difficult to eradicate due to an extensive and deep root system. It is resistant to most chemicals and easily spreads by cultivation. It is not readily grazed by stock and capable of tainting meat and milk of grazing livestock, It also possesses the capability of poisoning stock.